Date: Wed, 16 Mar 2005 15:19:47 -0500

Greetings,

We now have 42 actions listed for the March 19-21st days of action and momentum continues to build. We are getting postings in from places that have never had an anti-war/occupation event. As you saw in a previous e-mail the number of actions in the US has doubled from last year.

Please check the listings for your event and let me know about any updates. Also, take a look at what our friends are doing for their actions. We have a truly amazing list of different types of events with some fantastic speakers.

Aldergrove, B.C.

Interfaith Peace Vigil

7:00pm

Aldergrove United Church (2623 - 272nd Street, Aldergrove BC)

Please join us March 20th at 7:00pm to mark two years of war in Iraq. This Interfaith Peace Vigil will be held at Aldergrove United Church, with speakers from the Sikh, Muslim and Christian communities.

All are welcome to attend.

For further details call 604-856-5806 or kimandeb@intergate.ca

Organized by the Aldergrove
United Church

Annapolis Royal, NS

In conjunction with peace rallies around the world and across Canada, the Annapolis/Digby peace alliance will be demonstrating at 1:00 at the lights in Annapolis Royal on Saturday, March 19.

We will be marking the anniversary of the Iraq war, and will be voicing our concerns over Canadian troops being integrated into the US military (as seen recently in Haiti). In the nearby ARCAC (Annapolis Region Community Arts Council) building there will be a display of remarkable images and quotes about recent wars. Refreshments will be provided. This will also be a celebration of 'civil society' having stopped Canada from joining onto the US Missile Defence scheme! Bring images and quotes. All welcome.

Brampton, ON

The Brampton Social Action Network is having a rally on March 19 as part of The International Days of Action Against the War! It is at 4 pm so as not to conflict with Toronto's events and will be held at the cenotaph just north of Gage Park on the north west corner of Hwy 10 and Wellington.

Calgary, AB

On the second anniversary of the
invasion of Iraq,
remember the true cost
of war and occupation:
100,000 IRAQI
CIVILIANS DEAD AND

COUNTING

When: Saturday,
March 19 at 1pm

Where: Tomkins Park
(17 Ave and 8 St.

S.W.)

On the second anniversary of the invasion of Iraq, we will be remembering the thousands who have lost their lives or been wounded in the war and occupation. We will march silently through the streets listening to the names of the Iraqis who have died. This will be followed by speeches by the Very Reverend Bill Phipps and Dijla

Al-Rekabi, an Iraqi-Canadian, at Tomkins Park. We encourage all who participate to dress in black and to carry black flags of mourning (coinciding with the Black Flag Campaign). For more information on the event or the Black Flag Campaign, go to <http://www.candil.ca/>

Castlegar, B.C.

Join with us on Saturday, March 19
at 2:00 pm.

Gather at Stephenville
Square (Fields) for

a march to the Castlegar
Courthouse. Dove
placards will be available but make
and bring your own.
At the Courthouse
the Selkirk Students
for Global Justice

have planned a program of
speakers who will
articulate the view
from the Valley,
from Selkirk
College and from Korea. Listen to the music we all love

and to the
inspiration of our local poets. On the open mike, express
yourself, take this
chance to speak
truth to power.

The Kootenay
Region Branch of the UNAC together
with Selkirk
Students for Global Justice and the USCC have
planned this event
to bring our

Kootenay region
into the
international protest
and expression of
solidarity with the people on the ground in Iraq.
