Ultimate Resource for Peace Action in Your Community

Physicians for Global Survival announces the launch, in pdf format, of a kit of resource materials on how to be active on nuclear disarmament issues at a community level.

www.pgs.ca/updir/Resource\_Kit.pdf "Resource Kit for Community Involvement in Nuclear Disarmament Efforts" http://www.pgs.ca/updir/Resource\_Kit.pdf

The kit includes background information and planning materials on:

- Mayors for Peace - background information and suggestions on how to get your Mayor involved

- Lanterns for Peace Ceremony to Commemorate the Atomic Bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. 2005 is the 60th anniversary of those catastrophic events. The "how to's" of planning a commemoration ceremony in your community.

- Shadow Painting Project. How to create a powerful memorial to the innocent victims of the first atomic bombings - people who were instantly vaporised leaving behind only their shadows. How to plan the event, mix the water-soluble paint etc.

- Background information on the threats posed nuclear weapons and efforts to eliminate them.

- Tools for working with the media
