

Two Parallel Crimes Against humanity: US and its allies on Afghani and Iraqi citizens and Libya, on its own

Posted by Joan Russow

Sunday, 03 December 2017 08:57 -

Two Parallel Crimes Against humanity: US and its allies on Afghani and Iraqi citizens and Libya, on its own citizens.

written and posted in 2011

Is there a difference in kind or in degree between what Kaddafi is doing to his citizens and what the US and its allies have been doing to citizens in Afghanistan and Iraq. The US has been allowed by the international community to engage in illegal and aggressive acts of war with citizens in both countries being designated as ``collateral damage``.

Yet, engaging in an illegal and aggressive war, by US and its allies is not deemed to be a crime against humanity and in Max Boot's term is only a savage war of peace or in Obama's term, a just war

Undoubtedly there will be set up an International Tribunal on war crimes to try Gadhafi, but will there ever be an International Tribunal to try Bush, Blair, Rumsfeld, Cheney

Note the rest original article was deleted when the site was extirpated in 2012

Two Parallel Crimes Against humanity: US and its allies on Afghani and Iraqi citizens and Libya, on its ow

Posted by Joan Russow

Sunday, 03 December 2017 08:57 -
