Dear Yanis

I have tried to contact you for two months but your e-mail is still full; I thought i would try one more time because october 2 2020 is the last day that green party members in Canada has the opportunity to vote for an outstanding socialist candidate Dimitri Lascaris , and member of the Progressive International

"My name is Joan Russow and I am the former leader of the Green Party of Canada."

I was extremely disappointed in Bernie Sanders's not receiving the Democratic nomination but was revived when I saw that the both of you had launched the Progressive International and I joined immediately and hoped that would be a way of uniting progressives internationally. Especially those running for office. I am writing to you about an outstanding socialist candidate who is running for the leadership of the Green Party of Canada: Dimitri Lascaris. He is running

_____ To confront injustice

_____ To unite progressives

_____ To disrupt the status quo

_____ He is well-respected lawyer and has taken on corporations through the courts and he has been a fierce critic of capitalism. Both of us had given up on the NDP when they struck “socialism” from their mandate. You may remember him from when he interviewed you for the real news and from when he reported extensively on the austerity crisis in Greece and met numerous senior officials in the Syriza government.

_____ Currently he is running second out of nine candidates and would really appreciate any support you, Bernie or progressive international could give him for his campaign

_____ Here is a recent article and interview about his campaign and campaign
