

Voices from the Bolivarian Revolution

Posted by

Sunday, 18 September 2005 03:28 - Last Updated Sunday, 18 September 2005 03:28

Voices from the Bolivarian Revolution

CASC - Randy Caravaggio - Hi friends, This is a reminder of our event that's coming up on Tuesday. We cordially invite everyone who would be interested in a revolution that's taking place in our time which is challenging; Globalization, Privatization, U.S. Imperialism, Capitalism, Inequality, Free Trades and the like. We hope to see you there.

Sponsored by the Central America Support Committee and the Victoria Peace Coalition

VENEZUELA: Voices from the Bolivarian Revolution

7 pm Tuesday, Sept. 20 in the Strong Bldg. Rm. C118 @ UVIC.

In solidarity with Venezuela, Randy for Central America Support Committee & Victoria Peace Coalition

Hear Jacobo Torres de Leon and Marlyn Zerpa speak on their experiences in the unfolding democratic and social revolution in Venezuela.

Jacobo de Leon leader within the National Union of Workers of Venezuela (UNT) and a member of the International Council of the World Social Forum. Marlyn Zerpa is the president of the Student Federation of the Universidad Nacional Experimental Simon Rodriguez.

Admission is free