

What is the FBI Doing in Canada?

Posted by

Friday, 06 October 2006 16:00 - Last Updated Friday, 06 October 2006 16:00

What is the FBI Doing in Canada?

CBC News - Friends, word warriors... Tomorrow morning on the CBC's The House, reporter Evan Dyer will have a detailed report on how the FBI has been fully integrated into Canada's police forces. This is how deep integration happens - by stealth, with no oversight and no public knowledge. - M. Dobbin

www.cbc.ca

What is the FBI Doing in Canada?

CBC News

October 6, 2006

The RCMP says it's put tight controls on its information-sharing with US agencies like the FBI in the wake of the Arar case. Yet, FBI officers continue to cross the border and sit-in on Canadian meetings.

CBC Reporter Evan Dyer drops by with a reality check.

<http://www.cbc.ca/thehouse/thisweek.html>