The Revolution Starts September 6th

PEJ News - Something has been stirring inside Victorians lately; starting as passive dissatisfaction towards government policy at all levels, but quickly growing into revolutionary spirit fuelled by exasperation, frustration, hope and a desire for true progress. The grinding complacency of everyday life has been broken. Ignored by our politicians for too long on issues as broad as the extension of the Afghan engagement, climate change, and the growing division between rich and poor has caused the concerned citizens of Victoria to finally say; "Enough! We want control BACK!

The Guerrilla Arts Festival is a combined effort of three student groups; Victoria Students for a Democratic Society, International Socialists and Students for a Free Tibet, presenting to the public a celebration of Artistic truth, social justice and the rising revolutionary spirit for change.
