(1) Left Film Night in Vancouver - Sunday, Jan. 25

From: "Kimball Cariou" pvoice@telus.net

INNOCENT VOICES

(Mexico/USA/Puerto Rico, 2004, 120 minutes, Spanish with English subtitles, dir. Luis Mandoki)

Mexican-born director Luis Mandoki returns to his Latin roots with this tale of child soldiers. Innocent Voices is set in 1980s El Salvador. Chavas is an 11-year old boy who lives with his mother and sister in a rudimentary shack. Though his life is tough, he still attends school and enjoys the usual childhood games with his gang of buddies. But civil war is raging in the jungles and mountains and many of Chavas
